

From the Archives: August 2020

Cloth umbrella. Printed with the name of House and Murphy on Park Street, Rockville and used during summer sidewalk sales. c.1930.

Tin sand pails with shovel. Tin was the plastic of its day and commonly used for toys and household items. c. 1910.

Brownie box camera. The attached metal plate reveals that the camera was purchased from Wendheiser's Music Store in Rockville. c. 1915.

Paper fan. Before electric fans and air conditioning, fans were one of the few ways that people could keep cool. c. 1910.