THE BAND OF STEADY HABITS

Return Engagement! Thanks to a generous grant from CTHumanities, Walt Woodward, Connecticut State Historian Emeritus, and the Band of Steady Habits are returning to Vernon Historical Society on Sunday, October 16th, at 2:00 pm at the Society's home on 734 Hartford Turnpike in Vernon.

After a brief membership meeting, the band will take us on a musical tour of our state focusing on the iconic places and cultural treasures that tell the story of What Makes Connecticut Connecticut. Our trip through the state will be enhanced by stunning photographs taken by acclaimed documentary photographer Carol M. Highsmith who was commissioned by the Library of Congress between 2012 and 2015 to take pictures of Connecticut's historic buildings and places as they appeared at the beginning of the 21st century. Ms. Highsmith asked Mr. Woodward to help her identify the appropriate places for inclusion in her set of photos.

The Band of Steady Habits combines the photos and beautiful music from the “past and present to describe the look, feel, and unique character of one of America’s first – and most original – states.

Vernon Historical Society invites members and nonmembers to visit us on October 16th and enjoy learning about “What Makes Connecticut, Connecticut.” Our meetings and programs are always free and open for everyone to come and enjoy.

For more information or questions, please call the Society at 860-875-4326 or visit our website at vernonhistoricalsoc.org.

Help us serve our community by bringing a non-perishable food item to our program. We will donate these items to a local food pantry. Thank You!
